Psalms Journey Quartet in Concert

Psalms Journey is a southern gospel quartet formed by a group of men who have each been individually called by the Lord to this type of ministry. It is based out of the Fort Worth area. It has been said that they are different than most groups in the industry because of their friendliness before and after concerts with the audience and their inviting personalities while presenting the gospel message. The quartet was formed in the summer of 2010 and went by the name "No Other Way Quartet" but that name was later changed to Psalms Journey.

Our goal is to not only be entertaining but more importantly, share the gospel of Jesus Christ through our music. We will always strive to produce a good quality sound that is enhanced by a personable and professional stage presence that will bring honor and glory to our Lord. Such a goal requires each member to have an undeniable call to the ministry and to be firmly committed to serving the Lord proclaiming His love.

We thank God for allowing us to witness the salvation of many as He has moved during our concerts and church services. We pray the Lord will continue to call hungry, hurting hearts to respond to Him through our music as we continue the journey our Lord has given us.

Dear Church Family,

Lynn and I want to thank you for your amazing love and generosity shown to us; not just this last Sunday, but every day. We are so very blessed by you and so thankful to be serving alongside this church family.

Thank you!

In Christ,

John & Lynn Curry
