Today's Message

If This Is Your Last Day...

Philippians 1:21

Give Up on Worry

Are you a worrier? What kinds of things do you worry about? Things that have already happened or things that might possibly happen in the future? You know, of course, that worry of any kind is a waste of energy.

When you worry about things you have no control over, it pulls you away from faith in God because worry and faith can't really hang out in the same space. So, when you feel anxiety and worry creeping into your heart, just stop it. Tell God that you are going to give the situation to Him because you know He can take care of it. Don't waste today worrying about tomorrow.
